ARRESTED FOR FORGERY

Posing as Son of Dead New York Millionaire, W. A. Witt of Hoboken, N. J., Was Into Arms of Waiting Police After Cutting Wide Swath at the Casino.

After cutting a wide swath last night at the Broadmoor Casino and at the Antlers hotel where he posed as the son of the late August E. Belmont millionaire banker of New York, W. A. Witt of Hoboken, N. J. was arrested at 11:30 o'clock last night at the Antlers, charged with forging and uttering forged certified checks in Chicago to the extent of several hundred dollars.

When Witt, resplendent in his diamonds and fashionable attire, stepped into his room at the Antlers shortly before midnight last night he was startled to find Detective Rowan and Police Officer McReynolds waiting for him. Surmising that the jig was up, Witt made a dive for his revolver in the dresser and later, when taken to the police station he remarked to the officers that if he had secured the weapon they would have had a corpse on their hands as the result of suicide.

About a week ago Manager W. S. Dunning of the Antlers hotel received a telegram from the chief of the secret service of the Auditorium Annex, Chicago, warning him to be on the the lookout for Winthrop Elliott, a noted hotel boat wanted in Chicago for forging certified checks, as the young man was headed in the direction of Colorado Springs. He was described as being 24 years of age, five feet six and one-half inches in height, weight about 135 pounds, light hair and complexion and gray eyes. "If he appears, have him arrested and notify us," concluded the telegram.

Wore Diamonds.

Witt arrived in Colorado Springs yesterday morning and almost immediately he was recognized as the man wanted in Chicago under the name of Winthrop Elliott. He registered at the hotel as H. P. Belmont, and announced that he was the son of the late August E. Belmont. He gave his residence as 677 Fifth avenue, New York, posing as a member of the banking firm of August Belmont & Co. of New York. He wore a handsome diamond ring worth about $100, a handsome gold watch and a valuable pearl stick pin and was dressed in the height of fashion, fully carrying out the impression of a man of wealth. He had in his possession $83 in cash and five forged certified checks for $100 each.

Robert E. Merris, a clerk at the Antlers, took the visitor to the Broadmoor Casino to spend the day and introduced him to a number of people under the name with which he was registered. Witt spent money liberally, the best of wines being none too good for him, and insisted upon treating up to everyone he met.

Walked Into Trap.

While he was enjoying life at the Casino the police department is arranging plans for his arrest. A search of his room disclosed two fine dress suit cases but no trunks, while in a convenient drawer was a loaded revolver, and in the inner pocket of a J. J. H. Auditorium Annex. Wheir Morse and Witt returned from the Casino, the latter proceeded to his room and was there received by the two police officers. He at once made a dive for the drawer containing the revolver, but was intercepted by Officer McReynolds, who took possession of the dangerous weapon. In his baggage was a complete outfit of checks and drafts with rubber stamps and stencils, together with all facilities for making checks and drafts upon the leading banks of the country.

Makes Confession.

Witt was escorted to the police headquarters, and after a few denials broke down and made a complete confession to Police Captain S. S. Stewart, saying that his real name is W. A. Witts and his home is at Hoboken, N. J. "Had I secured that revolver first you would have taken me to the morgue instead of bringing me here," he remarked.

Captain Stewart has notified the management of the Auditorium Annex of the capture and will hold the prisoner awaiting a reply.

The five forged checks found in the possession of Witt were evidently prepared in the event that he should run out of funds. Four of them were drawn on the German-American bank of New York, and were dated June 24, 1905. They read as follows: "Pay to the order of William Winthrop the sum of $100," and were signed "The Cumbria-Clearfield Coal Company, J. Harrrey Langdon, Vice President." Across the face of the check was stamped: "Certified, The German-American Bank, D. Hahn, Teller." The fifth check was drawn on the Farmers Loan and Trust company of New York, and was likewise dated in June and signed in a similar manner. This also was certified to for $100.

PRESIDENT LOUBET RECEIVES AMERICAN NAVAL OFFICERS

PARIS, July 4.—A notable feature of the Fourth of July celebration here was a reception by President Loubet at the Elysee palace to Senior Special Ambassador Porter, Junior Special Ambassador Loomis, Rear Admiral Sigsbee and the other officers of the American squadron constituting the official party for the transfer of the body of Admiral John Paul Jones.

The journey to the palace was accompanied by the same military ceremony attending ambassadors when they go to be received by the president. The party assembled at the American embassy, where officials of the presidential household called with state coaches and a squadron of cuirassiers, the most picturesque body of French mounted troops.

Ambassador McCormick accompanied the party, which was escorted through the Champs Elysees to the palace. Crowds lined the avenue to see the cavalcade and to salute the American officers, whose brilliant uniforms made them the center of all attention.

Within the palace court yard the Nineteenth Colonial infantry drawn up in hollow square rendered military honors while the band played "America."

President Loubet received the party in the Salon des Ambassadeurs, Mr. McCormick making the presentation. The president was most gracious and wished the Americans a happy sojourn. He inquired of Admiral Sigsbee the details of the voyage and invited the party to lunch with him Friday next.

As the party withdrew military honors were again rendered and the escort of cuirassiers accompanied it back to the embassy.

SWEDEN AND NORWAY

Object is to Give Force to Proposals for Settlement Which Plaskeg Commission Will Make to Norwegian Storthing.

King Oscar Defines His Position.

STOCKHOLM, July 4.—King Oscar granted a private audience to the correspondent of the Associated Press at the imperial palace today. In a lengthy conversation his majesty expressed his views on the present situation and said emphatically that he would never allow any of his sons or grandsons to accept the Norwegian throne. In speaking of the attitude of Norway the king displayed deep emotion and expressed his heartfelt sorrow at Norway's treatment of him after 42 years of unceasing labor for its happiness and prosperity.

His majesty said he wished to convey through the Associated Press his gratitude for hundreds of expressions of sympathy received from the United States. During the course of their conversation, King Oscar reiterated his official utterances regarding his position on the consular bill passed by the storthing and the events which followed his veto of it and said:

"When the king of Norway considers that the welfare of the country demands that he shall veto a bill passed by the storthing, his right to do so is unconditionally shown in Norway's constitution and he would be false to his oath if he did not exercise this right."

The constitution gives the storthing the power to pass a measure over my veto, prescribing, however, that this can only be done by the bill being passed by three consecutively elected storthings. The consular bill was only passed by one storthing.

"As king of Norway it was of the utmost necessity that I should always keep before my eyes the first article of the Norwegian constitution which reads: 'The kingdom of Norway is a free, independent and inalienable country united to Sweden under one king.' Therefore, it was unnecessary before approving a bill separating the consular systems of Norway and Sweden that I should consider the welfare and interests of both countries, and I had a perfect right as king of Norway to refuse my sanction."

The refusal of the Norwegian cabinet to countersign my veto was inexcusable, as the constitution prescribes that the king may decide according to his judgment and that all his orders must be countersigned by the cabinet.

"Thus the Norwegian constitution, my own conscience and my consideration of the welfare of both kingdoms were the guide to my action in vetoing the consular bill."

This is the first interview granted by King Oscar to any correspondent. His majesty had been advised not to talk for publication, and every effort was made to prevent access to him. The Associated Press correspondent, however, received a communication last evening summoning him to a private audience today.

WILL SAIL FOR THE PHILIPPINES NEXT SATURDAY ON STEAMER MANCHURIA TALKS OF EXCLUSION.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—Secretary of War William H. Taft and party arrived on San Francisco at 9:45 today. A hearty greeting was extended the visitors by 5,000 citizens who assembled at the ferry depot to watch the party conclude the trip across the continent. Secretary Taft and Miss Roosevelt took a waiting automobile and were immediately taken to their hotel, the remainder of the party following in carriages. As the automobile proceeded through the crowds on the main street of the city, the secretary and Miss Roosevelt bowed in acknowledgement of the greeting extended them.

The distinguished visitors have come in the midst of exceptionally warm weather for the region about San Francisco bay, the thermometer registering as high as 94 degrees in this city today.

Inspected Bridge Site.

That he might make an inspection of Carquinez Straits for the purpose of making a report to the president on the application to place a railroad bridge across the span of water, Secretary Taft left the special at Sparks, Nev., and took another special of three cars to San Francisco bay.

While but a few hours were devoted to an examination of the proposed location of the bridge, the inspection was thorough. Secretary Taft said he had not determined what would be the nature of his report. After the inspection, Mr. Taft joined the party at Benecia, and proceeded to San Francisco.

PRESIDENT ON WAY TO ATTEND FUNERAL

With Members of Cabinet He Pay Farewell Tribute to John Hay, Late Secretary of State, Tomorrow at Cleveland. Powers Express Sympathy.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 4.—President Roosevelt and nearly all the present and former members of his cabinet are en route to Cleveland tonight on a special train on the Pennsylvania railroad to attend the funeral of John Hay, late secretary of state.

The party constitutes the largest representation of the executive branch of the government ever assembled on one train. It includes, besides the president, all except one member and three former members of President Roosevelt's cabinet. Secretary Taft, who is en route to the Philippines, is the only absentee from the cabinet. Mr. Root, at the request of the president, will represent the state department at the funeral of Mr. Hay.

The president left Oyster Bay on his sorrowful mission at 3:25 p. m. on a special train of the Long Island Railroad company. In the president's party were Secretary Loeb, the president's personal stenographer, representatives of the press associations, secret service officers and messengers.

The run to Long Island city was made in fifty minutes, the president having as his guest in that city, Baron Sternberg, the German ambassador, who visited the president at Sagamore Hill today to pay his respects prior to the departure for Germany on Thursday.

As the president left his car at Long Island City he shook hands cordially with the engineer and fireman of the locomotive which had drawn the train. A crowd had gathered at the station to greet him and cheered him heartily as he was escorted to the steamer, on which the trip to Jersey City was made.

The president arrived at Jersey City station at 5:15 o'clock and at once entered the special train which was awaiting him. He was joined at the station by Attorney General Moody and former Secretaries Root and Morton.

Baron Sternberg a Guest.

Philadelphia was reached at 7:35 p. m. the presidents being joined here by Secretaries Shaw, Bonaparte, Wilson, Hitchcock and Metcalf, Postmaster General Cortelyou, Charles Emory Smith and Dr. Rixey, surgeon general of the navy. Dinner for the party was served on the train as it left Philadelphia. The train remained in the Broad street station until 8:02 during which time an exchange of locomotives was made. The president remained in his car conversing with the members of his cabinet until just before the train began to move. He then slipped to the platform, shook hands with the fireman and engineer and bowed to the station employes, policeman and others who had crowded about the car. Senator Knox, formerly attorney general, will board the train early tomorrow morning at Sewickley a short distance west of Pittsburg.

The special is due to arrive in Cleveland at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

CLEVELAND, O., July 4.—The body of John Hay lies in state throughout the national holiday in the chamber of commerce, guarded by soldiers. In accordance with the proclamation of Acting Mayor Lapp, the public in general remained from the vicinity of the chamber of commerce. There were few visitors at the chamber during the day.

The information had been widely spread that neither the casket nor the room in which it lies were to be viewed and the guardians of the building passed a quiet day. Samuel Mather was the only member of the family to appear at the chamber of commerce during the day. He came to consult with the citizens committee relative to some details of tomorrow's funeral and remained in the hall where the casket lay but a few minutes.

Spent Day Quietly.

Mrs. Hay spent the day quietly at the home of Mr. Mather at Glenville. Many visitors called, but to the majority of them she denied herself, the strain of the last few days and the duties of tomorrow rendering rest necessary. All day long strings of messenger boys delivered floral tributes at the home of Mr. Mather. They came from all parts of the country and a number were sent by foreign countries. Early tomorrow the flowers will be taken from the house to the cemetery where they will be arranged about the grave while the services are being held in the chapel.

Secretary I. Hojiki of the Japanese legation arrived this morning to attend the funeral. He is the only personal representative of the diplomatic corps who has arrived up to this time. The citizens of Cleveland will hold a Hay memorial meeting at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the chamber of commerce. Governor Herrick will preside and Elihu Root will be asked to deliver the principal address. Other speakers will include prominent Cleveland men.

CRIPPLE CREEK PLANS FOR GREAT CELEBRATION

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, July 4.—If there is one thing that Cripple Creek prides itself upon it is the celebration of the Fourth of July. There is more noise in the Cripple Creek district today and tonight than the Japanese and Russian armies could make.

Cripple Creek was out in her gala attire today. She outdid herself, for never before was such a crowd of patriotic citizens assembled together in the great camp. Excursions from every direction came into the city this morning until residents were not sure whether this was Cripple Creek or not.

At 10:30 o'clock the big parade started, taking more than 30 minutes to pass a given point. In the parade was Mayor Thomas Connor, seated on the big elephant belonging to the street fair, while Chief of Police John Sharp followed closely riding the camel. There were numerous bands and drum corps, and probably one of the greatest features of the parade was the old hook and ladder wagon of the central fire division, which was decorated and trimmed with bunting and flowers, in the center a little girl representing the Goddess of Liberty, accompanied by two soldiers. Many veterans of the civil war were in the parade.

After the parade the crowd went to the new Teller county court house when the dedication of the new building took place. Speeches were made by C. C. Hamlin, Rev. Davidson, J. W. Huff, James M. Brinson, T. B. McDonald and the Hon. M. Baldwin, of Woodland Park. Ball games and other sports make up the features of the afternoon celebration.

GREAT AS AND BREEZLES GE
ONE EACH AT DOUBLE-HEADER

Colorado Springs and Denver broke even on the double-header yesterday, the locals winning the first by a score of 10 to 9, and the visitors winning the second by a score of 18 to 12. Baseball has its extremes as well as anything else, and the games at Athletic park yesterday afternoon and evening furnished a combination of the first contest was one of the best ever seen on any diamond, while the last game was one of the worst ever seen on any diamond. Both contests were played under the most adverse conditions, and the fact that they were played at all was due entirely to the enthusiasm compelling players to go on with the game. The first game was called at 2:30 o'clock, and the second was started at 5:30 o'clock, and was finished at 7:30 o'clock, after darkness had settled down, so the players could scarcely be seen. Both games were witnessed by enthusiastic, compelling crowds, and the receipts were the largest of any two games played in this city during the season. The first game was a pitchers' battle from start to finish, and the visitors were batting Gerber hard all the time, but they could not get the ball over the plate when hits were needed. Gerber was in the box for the locals, and he pitched a great game. He was given poor support in the field

We received yesterday about three dozen more of the superb Nash Wild Flower pictures in water colors.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Cincinnati Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

Mrs. Sara Wilson

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"About nine months ago I was a great sufferer with womb trouble, which caused me severe pain, extreme nervousness, and frequent headaches, from which the doctor failed to relieve me. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and within a short time felt better, and after taking five bottles of it I was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a splendid uterine tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain, and what a blessing it is to find such remedy after so many doctors fail to help you. I am pleased to recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. Sara Wilson, 31 East 3d Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you have suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, leucorrhœa, flooding, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-let-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, some derangement of the uterus or ovarian trouble. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

CAUGHT 13 SPECKLED BEAUTIES BELOW SEVEN FALLS AND GIVES VISITORS A RARE TREAT.

There is no longer any mucky humor. The hoodoo that has long hovered over that particular section was forever dissipated yesterday by E. V. Brinkerhoff, proprietor of the Spaulding house. Mr. Brinkerhoff did it by catching 13 trout 9 inches long in two hours and 15 minutes. There is a prediction among Mr. Brinkerhoff's friends that some of the trout were not only ten inches, but it is certain that not one of the 13 fell any short of that dimension. The beauties were caught between Seven Falls and the mouth of Cheyenne canon by special permission. Mr. Brinkerhoff was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Irene, and her guests, Miss [illegible] Hastings, of Superior, Neb., and Miss Louise Pope, of Red Cloud, Neb. ## CONGRESSMEN ENTERTAINED BY SPRINGS BUSINESS MEN

Members of Irrigation Committee Guests at Elaborate Dinner at the Antlers—Distinguished Visitors Greatly Impressed With the West.

The unanimous opinion of the members of the congressional irrigation committee expressed at the close of the dinner at the Antlers last night, was that the systems of irrigation in Colorado completely surpass anything they had seen on the entire western trip from the Mississippi to the Pacific coast.

In a brilliantly lighted and beautifully decorated banquet hall at the Antlers hotel last night the members of the congressional irrigation committee held the last formal function of their itinerary. Today at Denver they disband, each going his separate way.

After they had been entertained at dinner last night by prominent members of the Colorado Springs chamber of commerce and business men of the city, Frank W. Mondell, chairman of the congressional committee, in a few words voiced the sentiment which was in the minds of every one present. He said that the trip had been a most agreeable one in every way, and that the hospitality of Colorado Springs was famous for brilliant social events.

"If our trip did no more than to quicken the enthusiasm and interest of the west in irrigation, I feel that it would be of the widest benefit, and could count as a large success. That is what Representative Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, chairman of the congressional committee of irrigation, said last night of the inspection tour of the west which members of the house and senate irrigation committees made, and which will be ended at Denver tomorrow.

This trip was organized by Mr. Mondell and is the first of the sort ever made by members of congress.

"The west has been interested in our irrigation projects immensely, Mr. Mondell said. The fact that so many members of congress could leave their duties and come west to study the problem of reclaiming the arid lands has accentuated the interest of the western people in a manner that will be fruitful of results.

"I am sorry that all of our party could not accompany us. Two members of the senate who were to have joined us were taken ill a day or two before we started. Another member was detained by illness in his family at Cheyenne. Senators Warren, of Wyoming, Newlands, of Nevada and DuBois, of Idaho, joined Secretary Taft's Philippine expedition. Congressman Brooks, of Pennsylvania, is in our party and has done more of all of us to gain a clear idea of what we have seen on the trip. A clear-cut statement of what we have seen on the trip will go far toward favorably influencing representatives of the east in future irrigation measures. Our party has numbered from 26 to 30 members, and we have all learned great things of the possibilities of irrigation development since we left the capital. We are in closer touch with irrigation in general throughout the country, and am certain that we have gained an intimate knowledge of irrigation affairs that will be of use to us in our work of legislation.

"We have been struck by the largeness of the west and with the bigness of its possibilities. It is difficult for the eastern man to understand the vast agricultural empire which with the development of irrigation the west will become.

Congressman Jones, of the state of Washington, said: "I am sorry we haven't a dozen eastern congressmen in our party. Their eyes would be opened to the marvelous possibilities of this region. No man could see those things which this committee has witnessed and not be filled with a great faith in the west."

The distinguished visitors arrived in Colorado Springs over the Denver & Rio Grande road at 1:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon and were immediately transferred to the Short Line for the Cripple Creek trip, from which they did not return until 7:30 o'clock last evening. They were joined on this excursion by T. C. Smith, superintendent of the Short Line, Henry Russell Wray, secretary of the chamber of commerce, and Clarence P. Dodge, of the Colorado Springs Gazette.

With the party were Representative F. W. Mondell, Wyoming; Representative W. A. Reader, Kansas; Representative A. F. Cooper, Pennsylvania; Representative W. L. Jones, Washington, Elwood Mead, Washington, D. C., reclamation service; Judge J. I. Parker, Washington, D. C., representing Secretary Hitchcock; C. J. Blanchard, Washington, D. C., reclamation service; Arthur Ruhl, New York, Collier's Weekly; F. H. Newell, Washington, D. C., reclamation service; C. G. Rowley, Jackson, Mich.; H. J. Brown, Fortland, Ore.; State Engineer Jaycox, Prof. L. G. Carpenter, Congressman Franklin E. Brooks, of Colorado Springs, and others. The ladies, wife, Mrs. Reader, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. T. L. Parker, Mrs. Blanchard and Mrs. Brown.

JOINED HER HUSBAND IN THE GREAT BEYOND

After 45 years of sunshine and shadow by the side of John Maben, her husband, Mrs. Mary A. Maben followed him into the valley of the shadow within two weeks of his passing.

Mrs. Maben's death was as much due to mining away as to the injuries she sustained in falling from a low rocking chair at her home, 319 Hancock street. Her death occurred yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock.

When her husband died two weeks ago Mrs. Maben in her grief expressed a hope that she might not long survive him. After the accident of her last Thursday it was apparent that her wish for rest would find an answer in the last silence.

Mary Ascneth Curran was born in Hamilton, N. Y., November 23, 1828. She was married to John Maben, June 23, 1852, with whom she lived for over 53 years. She was the mother of seven children, six boys and one girl, only two of whom survive. J. D. Maben, of Salt Lake City, and W. B. Maben, of this city, survive. She was the second wife of Mr. Maben.

By being thrown from his buggy near the Santa Fe crossing, under Costilla street yesterday morning, Dr. J. T. The horse shied at the crossing, which is being repaired, and overturned the buggy. Dr. Estill is in great pain from the injured rib and other sprains, and may be in bed for several days.

CROWDS ATTEND CELEBRATION

Over 3,000 Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek Excursionists Spend the Fourth at Clyde—Ball Game and Field Sports—List of Prize Winners.

Over 3,000 excursionists from Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek attended the monster celebration at Clyde yesterday given under the auspices of H. C. Castle company No. 2, Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias. It was the biggest day the Short Line has ever had, seven Record trains being required to accommodate the crowds from Colorado Springs alone. It was estimated that about 1,000 Cripple Creek excursionists spent the day with the Colorado Springs contingent.

From the time the first train left the Santa Fe depot at 8 o'clock yesterday morning until the last returned late last night the day was a constant round of pleasure. The morning was spent in the sunny, delightful retreats near Clyde, and after the picnic lunch, the excursionists returned to enjoy the program of sports.

The game ball between Pike's Peak company No. 10 and H. C. Castle company No. 2, U. R. K. P., was so hotly and evenly contested that the judge was unable to pick a winner, and declared it a draw.

In the baseball game, No. 10 proved itself the superiors the score being 7 to 5. The two teams lined up as follows:

Pike's Peak company No. 10—Edwards, c; S. Graham, p; McLain, 1b; T. Burke, 2b; Captain Ulmer, ss; Lawson, 3b; Day, lf; W. Goshen, cf; Hemenway, rf.

H. C. Castle company No. 2—Benjamin, c; Smeck, p; Captain Payton, 1b; Johnson, 2b; Glynn, 3b; Davis, ss; Ralston, lf; Oppenheimer, cf; Counts, rf. Umpire, Allen.

The picnic was given by H. C. Castle company No. 2, Uniformed Rank, K. P. company No. 10 being its guests. Among the prominent guests of H. C. Castle company were Colonel H. C. Jones, of Greeley, Brigadier General Hamlin, of Denver, and Brigadier General Hutchinson, of Pueblo.

REWARD MAY BE OFFERED

MOVEMENT ON FOOT TO PAY $100 FOR INFORMATION LEADING TO CAPTURE OF W. D. ASCOUGH.

In order that the cases against W. D. Ascough, a former Colorado City real estate dealer, may be brought to trial upon the charge of securing money by means of fraudulent real estate transactions, there is talk of offering a reward of $100 for information that will lead to his arrest.

Ascough was to have been brought to trial in the district court early last month, but a few days prior to the date of the trial, he skipped the country, leaving his bondsmen to settle the bill. The bonds were declared forfeited in the district court and the bondsmen appealed the case to the supreme court upon alleged errors in the proceedings against the bondsmen. As the matter now stands Ascough has never been tried nor have his bondsmen paid over the amount for which they were responsible. Citizens interested in the prosecution of the cases have expressed the opinion that Ascough must yet be brought to justice, and are now considering the advisability of offering a reward for his capture.

Passed Stone and Gravel With Excruciating Pains

A. H. Thurnes, Mgr. Wills Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pains. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE has done me $1,000 worth of good."

No Other Remedy Can Compare With It

Thos. A. Carter, of Ashboro, N. C., had Kidney Trouble and one bottle of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE effected a perfect cure, and he says there is no remedy that will compare with it.

CEMETERY HYDRANTS CHOKED BY SMALL FISH

Owing to an accident at Prospect lake, last Saturday no water has been available for sprinkling purposes in Evergreen cemetery until yesterday, when the necessary repairs were completed. The irrigating water for lawns at the cemetery is conveyed from the lake to the cemetery by means of a large wooden main. Although the intake of this main was covered with a fine wire screen, small fish were continually getting into the supply pipes and stopping up the hydrants. To remedy this the intake and fish screens were installed. When the water was turned in on Saturday the concrete coating from some of the manhole were blown off by the air pressure.
